apparent that [REDACTED] was not entirely sure of the direction the new Cuban Government was taking, and stated that when he returned to Cuba and saw that the Communists were further seizing power, he would leave and join in opposition to the present Cuban Government.

The Bureau's attention is further directed to the fact that [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] told her that he had contacted the U.S. Embassy regarding the return of these letters three months ago, but has not received any action as of the present time. The NYO feels that if the Bureau can do anything to hasten the return of these letters requested by [REDACTED], he could prove to be of invaluable assistance to the Legat, Havana. b7C

The Bureau's attention is directed to contents of enclosed memorandum wherein [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] was in the possession of minute details of their proposed plan of action against the CASTRO Government. [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] was going to turn over all details of this anti-CASTRO plan to SA [REDACTED] alias [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] advised it was the result of [REDACTED] interview with U.S. Ambassador PHILIP BONSAI regarding the obtaining of a visa for the Mayor of Bayamo that [REDACTED] stated that it was no use asking the U.S. for any favors since they would not go out of their way to assist the Cubans. [REDACTED] stated as a result [REDACTED] said he would not turn these plans over to [REDACTED] since he felt the U.S. was not interested.

The Bureau is requested to consider the advisability of having [REDACTED] contact [REDACTED] regarding the furnishing of the plans in his possession to the Legat, Havana.

[redacted] also advised that [redacted] told her that the May 28, 1959 issue of "Hoy", the Communist Party newspaper published in Havana, made a violent attack on Premier Fidel Castro and criticized his actions. [redacted] told [redacted] that Fidel Castro was quite perturbed about this action in publicly criticizing him and that Fidel Castro is now beginning to realize the problem of Communism in the country and the tremendous problem which it presents to the new Cuban government.

[redacted] on May 25, 1959, advised that there is being formed in Cuba an anti-Castro organization which is composed of members of the July 26th Movement, the Autentico Party and the Orthodox Party. [redacted] stated that as of the moment this organization has no name [redacted]

[redacted] advised that she had obtained this information from [redacted] during her recent visit to Cuba from approximately May 1 to May 16, 1959. [redacted] advised that in addition to [redacted] she also knows that [redacted]

States currency which she retained from the funds which she had collected for the July 26th Movement. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] told her that [REDACTED] is rather unstable at the present time and many people in Cuba believe she has had a nervous breakdown. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that many times she has criticized Fidel Castro and his government and he is hoping that by his constant contacts with her he can win her over to their side and thus acquire the use of the funds which she holds in her possession.

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] plan is to obtain permission from Castro to form an opposition political party in Cuba similar to the manner in which the Communist Party was allowed to operate after the overthrow of the Batista government on January 1, 1959. [REDACTED] stated that he had planned to form an opposition party which would be loyal to Fidel Castro but which would be strongly anti-Communist. [REDACTED] stated that they would have to create a political situation in Cuba whereby Fidel Castro would publicly have to come out either in support of or in opposition to the Communist Party. [REDACTED] feels that with the creation of such an incident it will force the hand of Raul Castro and Ernesto "Che" Guevara, who are alleged to be strongly in support of the Communists, to an open fight and create a crisis within the Castro government.

[REDACTED] advised that from her contacts and various interviews in Cuba during May 1959, she ascertained that Major Camilo Cienfuegos, who is in command of Camp Libertad, is strongly anti-Communist and is most resentful of certain individuals who are surrounding Fidel Castro. [REDACTED] stated that the opposition feel that they can get the support of Cienfuegos and members of the rebel army if it comes to the point of making a decision between democracy and Communism in Cuba. [REDACTED] also stated that in addition to the individuals mentioned above, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are also in support of [REDACTED] and his opposition party.

[REDACTED] further stated that in one of her conversations with [REDACTED] told her that Fidel Castro had confided to him that during his, Castro's, recent visit to the United States, he, Castro, realized that his most powerful enemies were immediately surrounding him, indicating that he was cognizant of the Communist element within his government. [REDACTED] also advised that it was common knowledge among the military and people with whom she had spoken in Havana that 90% to 95% of the Cuban Navy is against the present government of Fidel Castro.

[REDACTED] also advised that [REDACTED] will accept Fidel Castro as the leader of their movement but only if Castro is stripped of his power. [REDACTED] stated that despite the economic and internal problems in Cuba, Fidel Castro still commands a large following of the people, but pointed out that the upper and middle classes of the Cuban population have now deserted Castro and that Castro's followers and staunch supporters are the "street mobs" and Communist-inspired labor people. [REDACTED] stated that upon Fidel Castro's arrival at Rancho Boyeros, Havana, Cuba, after his return from his visit to the United States, Canada and South America, 75% of the people who met him at the airport were negro and categorized as the "street mob". She stated that the representative people of the Cuban population were absent and that only the government people who had to be present were at the airport to greet him.

[REDACTED] stated that she had attended many parties during her visit to Cuba and that there was much criticism of the United States government among the people who were of the middle and upper classes. [REDACTED] stated that the criticism of the United States was over the lack of a definite policy toward the Castro government and the impending problem of Communism confronting the Cuban people. She stated she had heard from several groups, identities of individuals not recalled, who referred to the United States as a tired old democracy which was big in talk but small in action. She stated that it was a revealing situation to her to see that the British government was doing the most in Cuba and that the British government was doing everything in its power to protect property belonging to British subjects while the United States and United States State Department, according to Cubans, was doing nothing.

[REDACTED] also stated that from these conversations she also ascertained that Fidel Castro knows that he cannot survive in Cuba without the assistance of the United States, and that the people of Cuba who also know this fact cannot understand why the United States has not taken a definite stand in the question regarding Communist infiltration into the new Cuban government.

[redacted] stated that the people of Cuba to whom she spoke, which was a good cross-section of the people, are tired and worn out after this long struggle. She stated that the people in Cuba during January 1959 were jubilant and energetic and had great plans for the future of their country after having the yoke of Batista taken from their shoulders, but that with the developments of the past months they are once again disturbed and discouraged because they have not seen or heard one word of encouragement from the United States Government. b7C

[redacted] also stated that she had heard from [redacted] and people of his type that the United States was losing prestige among Latin American countries. These individuals had told [redacted] that other Latin American countries are looking at the Cuban situation to see how the United States reacts to the upheaval within the country and will form their judgment regarding the United States from whatever action the United States decides to take in dealing with Cuba.

Concerning the July 26th Movement, it is noted that this movement was founded by Fidel Castro, Cuban Prime Minister, who led an unsuccessful attack against the Moncada Barracks on July 26, 1953, from whence this organization has taken its name.

Concerning the Autentico Party and the Orthodox Party, it is noted that these are two recognized political parties in Cuba

The May 25, 1959 issue of the "New York World Telegram and Sun", All Sports Final, on page 2, under the column headed "The World Over", carried an item reflecting that "Hoy", the Havana Communist newspaper, claimed 4,000 people have joined the Communist Party in Cuba since January 1, 1959. "Hoy" stated that the Communist Party membership in Cuba was now estimated at 12,000 and this figure represented a 33% increase in membership since Fidel Castro's "Barbudos" overthrew the government of ex-President Fulgencio Batista. "Hoy" also claimed, according to this article, that the Communist Party had established 3,000 cells throughout the country.

The same edition of the "New York World Telegram and Sun", on page 18, carried the first of a series of articles written by Leon Dennen, who recently won an Overseas Press Club citation this year for distinguished analysis of foreign affairs, which is entitled "A Fair Look at Cuba".

This article stated that Fidel Castro's first year is hardly half over and he has twin threats of chaos and Communism. Dennen stated that he spoke to Cubans in all walks of life and that his conclusions regarding these items are as follows:

- 1) Cuba faces widespread economic distress and disorder and Castro and his key officials have shown no capacity to deal with them.
- 2) Cuba is fumbling weakly for a way out of political chaos as Castro has put off the prospect of free elections and dabbles in sketchily drawn policies.
- 3) Communists have been given a wide open door although Castro denies any link to them, they undercut his revolution in many ways and are making ready to capture his revolution when disorder dictates the proper moment.

Dennen stated that the Communists have already infiltrated the army, labor unions, and second echelon government posts. Dennen in this article also stated that during his visit to Cuba he found Red Chinese and Russian agents already on the scene in Cuba and stated that these dangers are not merely Cuba's alone but also are real dangers to the United States.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is a loan to your agency; it and/or its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

While the Bureau appreciates that the FBI may be enhanced in [redacted] eyes by making inquiries at Border Patrol and [redacted] may prove of invaluable assistance to Legat, Havana, it is not felt that the Bureau should inject itself into this situation or should make inquiries for [redacted] at Border Patrol, in view of his position as a Cuban Government official and the possibility that such inquiry would be embarrassing and detrimental to Bureau. [redacted] has already made an inquiry of the Embassy in Havana concerning the return of his property. Any inquiries concerning his re-entry into the U. S. should also be made of Embassy. You should so advise [redacted]

With regard to the advisability of having [redacted] contact [redacted] regarding the furnishing of plans in his possession to Legat, Havana, it is noted that Legat, Havana, advised on 5/5/59 that [redacted] suggested while she was in Cuba that she introduce [redacted] to Legat, Havana, before she left Cuba. Legat, Havana, advised that he believed direct contact with [redacted] was not feasible as it might compromise his operations. Under the circumstances it is not desirable to have [redacted] contact [redacted] regarding the furnishing of the plans to Legat, Havana.

Re Madrid letter 4-15-59.

On 5-22-59 [redacted] of the Visa Unit of the Embassy here advised that on 5-21-59 [redacted] described as [redacted] during the BATISTA regime, had applied for a U.S. visitor's visa. He gave as his reason for desiring the visa, the fact that he wishes to visit a sick nephew, [redacted], who resides at [redacted]. He indicated that he will be accompanied by his wife, who already has a valid U.S. visa.

[redacted] stated that in view of the fact that the name of [redacted] appears on the list issued by the State Department containing names of prominent functionaries of the BATISTA regime whose visa applications should be examined very carefully, she cabled the Department of State on 5-21-59 requesting an advisory opinion regarding the issuance of a visa.

Although there is no indication that [redacted] intends to engage in conspiratorial activities against the present government in Cuba, this information is being furnished the Bureau because of the prominent position held by him in the BATISTA government.

Two extra copies of this letter are attached for forwarding by the Bureau to Miami and Havana for information purposes. The Madrid Office will continue to follow this matter with [redacted] and the Bureau will be advised in the event a visa is issued to [redacted].

From: John Edgar Hoover, Director
Subject: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

[redacted] who has been volunteering information to this Bureau concerning Cuban matters, advised our representative in Havana, Cuba, as follows on June 15, 1959:

b7C

[redacted] planned to depart from Havana for Washington, D. C., on June 16, 1959, to obtain aid for anti-Fidel Castro groups in Cuba. An official of the Cuban Ministry of State informed her that his signature has been forged on 140 to 150 diplomatic passports, seven or eight of which were made out to Russians whose birthplaces were falsely listed as Cuba.
The names of these Russians and the numbers on the passports are unknown to [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] told [redacted] that [redacted]
(possibly [redacted])

[redacted] departed from Oriente Province in Cuba two days previously for the Dominican Republic with a revolutionary force. She quoted [redacted] as stating this group is blowing up the Dominican Republic and has already captured a Dominican army post. These forces reportedly trained in the Province of Pinar del Rio and then moved to an area near Pico Turquino in Oriente Province for final training prior to invading the Dominican Republic.

[redacted] told [redacted] that Fidel Castro informed Raul Roa, upon Roa's recall to Cuba to assume his new duties as Cuban Minister of State, that U.S. Ambassador to Cuba, Philip W. Bonsal, had promised American aid to Cuba if Americans were given just compensation for property confiscated under Castro's agrarian reforms. [redacted] said Castro feels he has Ambassador Bonsal "in the palm of his hand" and noted that Castro points out that Ambassador Bonsal recently went to the airport to see Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Castro's military chief, off on a trip to Egypt (our Havana representative is aware that Ambassador Bonsal was at the airport to greet Raul Roa and was not there to see Guevara off). [redacted] also said Fidel Castro has referred to the United States as "a tired old democracy."

b7C

Cuban Ambassador to the United States, Ernesto Dihigo, is attempting to see Fidel Castro for the purpose of resigning his post and Revolutionary Directorate leader Faure Chaimon is trying to place his associates in Cuban Government positions. Fidel Castro, on June 16, 1959, was in Pinar del Rio Province with [redacted] where they were attempting to pacify landholders who have violently protested against Castro's agrarian reforms.

b7C

[redacted] under ex-President Batista who has been in exile in the Dominican Republic, recently has been in Cuba secretly where he recruited men for a revolution against the present Cuban Government. He has now returned to the Dominican Republic and has promised to return to Cuba within thirty days with arms and ammunition.

[redacted] has been requested by Cuban army officers opposed to [redacted] to furnish arms and ammunition for the anti-Castro revolution. They have informed [redacted] that 1200 trusted men are available for the revolution but the group does not want to be associated with [redacted]

[redacted] previously mentioned, [redacted] which [redacted] recently visited and where she noted that large invasion maps were kept. [redacted] also personally observed four Chinese men wearing Chinese military uniforms at Guevara's new residence in Havana.

Office of Security Department of State

Fidel Castro reportedly ordered that additional pesos be secretly placed on the Cuban market through agrarian reform loans and that no record be kept of the issuance of this currency since it will have no backing. Castro reportedly has made overtures to the Russian Government during which he has indicated his desire to recognize Russia but was told that the time is not yet propitious. President Manuel Urrutia of Cuba was a secret contributor to the Cuban Communist Party many years ago and his secretary and mistress, name unknown, is an admitted member of the Cuban Communist Party who works part time in the office of [REDACTED]

It is noted that in many instances [REDACTED] did not identify the sources of her information to our representative in Havana. It is also noted that this Bureau has no information which would confirm the data furnished by her to the effect that a revolutionary force from Cuba is blowing up the Dominican Republic and has captured an army post there. Since [REDACTED] reportedly obtained the data furnished herein while in Cuba, this Bureau is not presently in a position to make a further evaluation of the material furnished.

FIDEL CASTRO

It has become increasingly apparent in the past several months that F. C., if not a communist himself, is certainly dominated by them and is following an intelligent plan. For a few weeks, during and immediately after his trip to the United States, there was hope that at last he would settle down, pay attention to his more conservative advisers and stop flirting with the left wing of the revolution. Inside the revolution there was this hope; it was expressed by F. P., President of the National Bank of Cuba, by R. B., Minister of Economics, by several of the Ministers and people of importance who accompanied F. C. to the United States. They felt this mainly because they had been chosen to make the trip, rather than the other people. Before the trip, these people, although they occupy high positions in the Government, had barely even spoken with F. C., had rarely been consulted by him. Then with this trip, he suddenly became attentive to them and with their help was smoothly coached and slicked through his visit to the United States.

On arrival back in Cuba, these men gave out that they were happy, that F. C. had listened to their advice throughout the trip, that he was beginning to understand basic economic problems, that now he would put aside his more radical advisers, that he would shun the Communists and listen to them.

Instead, F. C. proved conclusively that he is operating according to a well conceived, well directed plan of operation. On return to Cuba, he ignored the men who coached him through his visit to the United States. From the time of his return to date, he has refused repeatedly and even after written demands he has denied an audience to F. P., the President of the National Bank. He had simply used these men as fronts while in the United States.

At the same time, he had some of his more conservative Ministers drawing up a bill for agrarian reform. Particularly devoted to this was S. M., Minister of Agriculture. S. M. completed his bill, showed it to all the members of the Cabinet and went to the Sierra Maestra with F. C. and all the other Ministers to proclaim the Agrarian Reform Bill, which he thought could be his, the one he wrote.

On top of the mountain, F. C. took out his own agrarian reform bill, one which no member of the Cabinet had seen before then and required them all to sign it. This is the agrarian reform bill which has now gone into force. It was written primarily by Ernesto "Che" Guevara, [redacted] and [redacted].

Ernesto Guevara, a U. S. Intelligence Agency states, "If he is not a Communist, he will do for one until another comes along." [redacted] is the sister of a noted French Communist and apparently a Communist herself; [redacted] the Agrarian Reform Institute and his way paid by the Communist Party of Cuba to a [redacted]

The basic principle of the law is "the land belongs to him who works it," as it has been propagated by the movement in its newspaper and in the speeches of F. C. The bill has also been touted as the giving of land to the peasants of Cuba. Under the bill, however, those who receive the land cannot sell it, rent it, borrow money on it, or leave it to their children. If they fail to meet standard production quotas, they lose the land. Complete discretion in these matters is given to Agrarian Reform Institute and to the ~~fixer~~ Courts which it will create.

Ege The best U. S. intelligence agency reports available suggest that the recent trips back and forth to Moscow by Cuban Communists, there have been nine such trips since the end of the revolution, have been to settle on policy. The Communists themselves have been so amazed at their success in Cuba they have had to find out what they should ask for next. The ten points which they demanded in their newspaper, "Hey," immediately after the end of the revolution, have all already been granted.

It appears that the decision has been made to be as provocative as possible, to ruin the economy as completely as possible, to disrupt the sugar supply program of the United States, and by such violent, trouble making activities as the invasions of other South American countries from Cuba and confiscation of United States property, as will force the United States to intervene directly.

This is their hope, their basic plan of action. Should the U. S. intervene ~~directly~~ directly, there has been whipped up enough anti-U. S. propaganda, over the attitude of the administration toward ~~Batista~~ Batista during his regime, over the former real or imagined ills of the Platt Amendment, and U. S. Latin American policy in general, that there will be forced to resist U. S. intervention. Besides the forces that could be gathered to resist U. S. intervention on these grounds are the far more serious forces presently extant of sincere Communist sympathizers among the young men of Cuba.

Unfortunately, this is presently the case. The young men of Havana especially, the University students, the junior executives, appear enthralled with what they call Italian or Cuban Communism. By this they mean they still go to church, they have their children baptized, intellectually they oppose police, violence, but economically they believe Communism a better system than capitalism. The problem is that for them, basic arithmetic seems to indicate that they would get a better shake under Communism than they have been getting under capitalism.

These young men would fight vigorously against U. S. intervention. It would destroy their sense of a "Lost Cause," to the ill employed against a Mexican revolution. In short, they are prepared, F. C. 's people and his intellectual leaders, to the fighting U. S. intervention, to the screaming, "Look, look, a second Hungary."

The side of this program would be Russia's interest. Communism's victory. Hope of winning India and the Asiatic world into our camp would be abandoned. In short, the Communist battle in Cuba today, appears to be a gambit to force U. S. intervention for world propaganda purposes.

This means Communism in Cuba must be fought from the inside by Cubans. We must use Cuban leaders by themselves who will do the job of Communism to us unless the reputation of world leaders.

It is thought that our approach to the problem, one possible satisfying point would be a newspaper, a highly vocal, active newspaper, the editor of the St. Louis Post Dispatch, to become known to Cubans who actually is going to the existing newspaper in Cuba and to this new because of self-interest. Because of this interest by a public opinion. Every paper accepted merely from outside to all sides of the situation, where and influence themselves. It they represent the present government with regard they would be accepted of public opinion. As a result, they have great scope the construction of public opinion and the people have the newspaper have no moral obligation from which to speak.

Now, there are a group of Cubans who were active in St. Louis, some of whom were held Government positions, all of whom are present in Cuba, who are willing to become the head of movement of a kind attacking newspaper. These men are so interested in the movement the newspaper would not be afraid of providing a staff.

There is interest in newspaper for side in Cuba -- the public press, and (personally) an existing newspaper 100,000 -- 20,000, the existing Cuban press 100,000. The Cuban press will meet in Washington is prepared to undertake the weekly paper and increase the labor. This group is to produce Cuba to the free world and to the United States.

The importance of Cuba's fighting for very end of the present situation without an organized propaganda victory for Russia in Cuba. So in the world of doing this by providing democracy and opposition to the Cuban people. This can only be done with a loud and clear voice. The voice of a newspaper.

REC-77

Dear Mr. Belmont:

Enclosed is an intelligence report which I have received from a very reputable source.

b7D

He is currently living with his family in Havana.

The enclosed report really tells the Cuban story. You will note that the last two paragraphs have reference to a newspaper. It is a "hard sell" job for me to promote money from a group in the U. S. who might be interested in such an undertaking, and I do not go along with the author's thinking on this matter. However, I believe you will find the information in the report interesting and factual.

Very truly yours,

Reference is made to this Bureau's letter dated June 17, 1959, captioned as above, which advised that information had been received concerning Prio's plans to visit the United States on June 17, 1959, and to depart from New York City for Europe on June 24, 1959. Reference is also made to our letter dated June 18, 1959, entitled "Foreign Political Matters - Cuba" which furnished information received from [redacted] concerning developments in Cuba.

On June 17, 1959, [redacted] advised our Miami Office that she arrived in Miami from Havana, Cuba, on Cubana Flight Number 492 on that date. According to her, the subject was aboard this flight and was accompanied by his family and approximately seven "henchmen." She claimed Prio was en route to Europe and plans to meet with other prominent Cubans, including a former president of the Cuba Sugar Institute and a former Cuban ambassador to the United Nations (possibly Emilio Riera Fortuondo), in Switzerland. b7C

[redacted] in speaking of her contemplated trip to Washington, D. C., which was mentioned in our referenced letter dated June 18, 1959, said she planned to proceed to Washington on the night of June 17, 1959, or on June 18, 1959, to talk to some unidentified United States Senators, as she is greatly disturbed about the Cuban situation. She said that she did not have any appointments with members of the United States Senate. b7C

This is a copy of a letter which was given to me having been received from Cuba. It reflects current information concerning the political situation in Cuba.

" I got back from my trip to the States just in time to be in on an interesting show. In the Tax Reform Law proposed by the government they had included something like four either new or increased taxes applicable to the oil industry. The companies got together in a flash and marched into the office of the Minister of Finance. When our first speaker was half way through his talk, the Minister himself rushed into the room. His face was somewhat red. There had just been brought to his attention Article XLV of the Petroleum Law, which expressly prohibits the levying or increasing of any tax on the oil industry other than those specifically provided for in said legislation. His fine experts had not seen the clause and he personally came to tell us that it was all a terrible mistake and that said portion of the new tax law would be struck out. This is an excellent example of how this country is being run.

Cuban* Economics and politics have rapidly degenerated in the last two weeks. Now the opposition to Castro is in the open and getting strong, and the lower classes are beginning to see the threat to themselves. There is evidently not going to be much of a tobacco crop this year because the owners will not plant under threat of losing their acreage, cattlemen will not produce under the low prices fixed by the government for meat, many sugar mills are unable to repay this last year's harvest loans after the government decreed the 12% increase in wages and will therefore be unable to start grinding this coming winter, not one brick is being layed in the construction business (virtually impossible already to find an empty house or apartment), and in short, there is positive distress in every phase of the country's economy, with food prices continuing to increase. Our hero liberators, though, blame all this on the meanness of the, rich folks, who they say want to see this noble revolution fail; and the Great One, who after his visit to the US and Latin America returned much improved, has now reverted to his most childish and rabble rousing ways. As you noted in the papers, all the "conservative" Ministers in the Cabinet were booted out a few days ago.

Everybody repeats the same comment: the only good thing about this situation is how bad it has already gotten -- by which they mean that it cannot last much longer. If it does, this country is unquestionably going bankrupt.

[redacted] advised that during her recent visit to Havana, Cuba, she ascertained from [redacted]

[redacted] that Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Castro's military chief, plans, upon his return from Egypt, to send a "comandante" with five hundred "Barbudos" into the United States naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, and demand that the United States turn the naval base over to Cuba. According to [redacted] the Cubans are convinced that the United States personnel on the naval base will not open fire on the Cubans, and should the United States resort to force, the Cubans could create an international incident. b7C

[redacted] further stated that in connection with Guevara's present trip to Egypt, he will reportedly make a deal involving Cuban sugar in exchange for Czechoslovakian arms and will also confer with President Gamal Nasser in Egypt concerning the technicalities involved in the seizure of the Suez Canal from the British by the Egyptians.

[redacted] added that she was informed by [redacted] that the Cubans, upon Guevara's return, would instruct the Panamanians on procedures to be taken in attempting to take over control of the Panama Canal.

b7C/D

A review of [REDACTED] material reflects that he has made many unsubstantiated allegations. On Page 1 he describes the present (Cuban) government as a dependency of the Soviet Union.
He further described "CHE" GUEVARA as an Argentine Communist and RAUL CASTRO as a vehement fanatic of International Communism.
Neither this office nor CIA has been able to prove that GUEVARA was ever a Communist although it is noted that he and RAUL CASTRO are definitely pro-Communist and anti-U. S. in their sympathies.

His statement on page 2 that when "CHE" GUEVARA arrived in Las Villas he established a radio station called "Red Star" which communicated with one operated by one [REDACTED] is not believed to be true inasmuch as [REDACTED] was in the Sierra at the time that "CHE" GUEVARA was in Las Villas Province.

His statements on page 2 concerning the collapse of the BATISTA army and the general strike called by CASTRO are true as is his statement in paragraph 1, page 3, which remarks concern the anti-U. S. campaign of the CASTRO forces in the Sierra.

His statement on page 4 that the newspaper, "Revolucion," which is self-described as the official organ of the July 26 Movement, is a Communist newspaper [REDACTED] is quite a broad sweeping one. [REDACTED] has admitted being a member of the Communist Party in the past, but the newspaper, "Revolucion" has attacked the Communists on several occasions.
His statement concerning the Communists publishing "Fundamentos" and establishing offices throughout Cuba is true.

b7C

His statement on page 5 concerning foreign Communists in Cuba is true as this office has recently learned that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] of the Mexican Communist Party, has been in Cuba for about six weeks. However, this office has no proof concerning his allegation that a Chinese and Hungarian are here. [REDACTED] mentioned on page 5, is a prominent Cuban Communist.

His statements concerning Cuba supporting agitation in the Caribbean set forth on page 5 are true. This office has no proof concerning his statement regarding the turning over of arms and money to [REDACTED] to conduct an armed revolution in Puerto Rico. However, every effort is being made by sources of this office to determine the facts surrounding whether such allegations may possibly be true.

His statement on page 6 concerning the control of the armed forces is true as that on page 7 regarding [REDACTED]

On page 7, paragraph 2, he describes RAUL CASTRO as a member of the Communist Party. We have no proof of this statement. His description of Comandante HILARIO PENA on page 7, paragraph 2, and under #19 on page 26, is not believed to be true. No sources here have alleged that PENA is a Communist. He was the judge in the first trial of the aviators tried at Santiago de Cuba and released them. For this he was severely criticized by FIDEL CASTRO and shortly thereafter committed suicide.

His statement on page 8 concerning control of the government is true. His broad statement that 7% of the secondary posts were in the hands of Communists is believed to be out of line with actual facts.

His analysis on page 9 that the control of workers in Cuba by the Communists is very strong although not absolute is believed to be right, as is his statement on page 10 concerning control of women.

On page 11 he states that the control of the student body is in the hands of [REDACTED] who exerts influence on [REDACTED]. It is to be noted that he is referring to the Federation of University Students which has little Communist infiltration, the Communists being defeated in recent elections.

Concerning his remarks on page 11 with respect to the Spaniards, this is believed to be true as are his statements on page 12 concerning "International politics."

He sets forth information on page 13 concerning [REDACTED] and indicates he believes that statements made by [REDACTED] are true. [REDACTED] indicated that the Communist Party had taken a very active part in the fight against BATISTA, but facts disproved this.

His remarks concerning armed Communist brigades and censorship are true as are his remarks on page 15 concerning [REDACTED]

The above is for the Bureau's information.

SUBJECT: ~~VISIT OF CUBAN ECONOMIC MISSION TO SPAIN~~

DATE: 6-24-59

WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE.

CONFIDENTIAL

On 6-5-59 [REDACTED] of the Embassy's Political Section exhibited a copy of a confidential State Department cable dated 6-4-59 which advised that a six man Cuban Economic Mission was scheduled to depart Havana on 6-5-59 for a 30-day trip to Madrid, Colombo, New Delhi and Karachi in that order. It was stated that the official in charge of this group would be ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA. Lu

The State Department communication described GUEVARA's Communist background and instructed that the Department of State was interested in the activities of this mission and any coverage that might be obtained regarding it. It was emphasized, however, that care should be taken to avoid leaving the impression that the United States considers FIDEL CASTRO or his government Communist or pro-Communist. Lu

On 6-11-59 [REDACTED] in the Cuban Embassy here during the BATISTA regime, volunteered the information that the group had not arrived in Madrid as yet.

[REDACTED]

A copy of the attached memorandum was furnished to [REDACTED] of the Embassy's Political Section. No dissemination was made to the CIA because it is known that the information from the original source is available to that agency here.

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

[redacted], Hotel Bretton Hall, New York City, returned recently from a trip to Cuba and was interviewed on June 22, 1959, in New York City. [redacted] identified her sources as [redacted] Havana; [redacted] Fidel Castro, Prime Minister of Cuba; and [redacted]

[redacted] furnished the following information which she attributed to the above sources:

The Cuban government intends, upon the return of Comandante Ernesto "Che" Guevara to Cuba from the United Arab Republic, to send an unidentified Comandante with 500 "barbudos", members of the rebel army, into the United States Naval Base at Guantanamo, Oriente Province, Cuba, and demand that the United States turn this base over to Cuba. [redacted] stated that her sources had indicated that it is the thinking in Cuba that the United States personnel at the Naval Base will not fire upon the Cubans when they make this demand and if the United States does bring force to bear, they, the Cuban government, can create an international incident. [redacted] stated that she had been told by her sources that this plan to take over the United States Naval Base was decided upon by Comandante Guevara.

[redacted] advised that she also ascertained from her sources that Comandante Guevara was sent to the United Arab Republic to consummate a deal with the United Arab Republic for Cuban sugar in exchange for Czechoslovak arms. [redacted] further advised that Guevara, while in Cairo, was to consult with Gamal Abdol Nasser, President of the United Arab Republic, to ascertain details concerning the technicalities involved in Egypt's seizure of the Suez Canal from the British government. [redacted] stated that she was told by [redacted] that the Cuban government, upon Comandante Guevara's return to Cuba, would instruct the Panamanians now in Cuba, identities unknown, on the procedure to be taken in an attempt to take over control of the Panama Canal.

[redacted] advised that Fidel Castro is being greatly influenced by Dr. Regino Boti Leon, who is the Minister of Economy in the Cuban government. She stated that [redacted] told her that Dr. Boti is influencing Castro with his left wing thinking and that [redacted] is counter-balancing the influence which Boti attempts to exercise over Castro's thinking.

[redacted] advised that during her stay in Havana she had seen a shipment of Browning automatic rifles and pistols, .30 and .50 caliber machine guns, and vast amounts of ammunition. She stated that this equipment was being unloaded from a ship in the Havana harbor and that the unloading was being done by the "barbudos" at night. [redacted] stated she could not distinguish the nationality of the ship but it was her impression that it was a Swedish ship.

[redacted] also advised that from her sources she ascertained that there were between 500 and 800 Tunisians and Algerians being trained in Cuba and that the Tunisians would be used by General Alberto Bayo, who is attempting to overthrow the government of Generalissimo Franco in Spain. [redacted] also stated that she had learned from her sources that the Algerians, since they were French speaking, would be used in the planned invasion of Haiti.

[redacted] advised that from [redacted] she ascertained that the Cuban government does not think it would take too much manpower and fighting to overthrow the Haitian government, and besides it would be of no great value to Cuba to overthrow Haiti. She stated [redacted] indicated that in the event the Dominican invasion [redacted] failed, the rebel forces would then drop back from the Dominican Republic into Haiti and then they would send reinforcements to Haiti, and in turn would again go into the Dominican Republic in an effort to overthrow Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo. [redacted]

[redacted] stated that from her many contacts and sources in Havana she has ascertained that there is a strong anti-Castro movement growing up among the business and wealthy classes in Cuba. She stated that [redacted] is getting financial assistance from the colonos (sugar mill owners) and that they have screened very carefully 1200 well-trained former Batista military personnel. [redacted] stated that the businessmen and wealthy classes in this anti-Castro movement are to handle (1) sabotage throughout the country, and (2) set up the new government when Castro is overthrown.

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED], who was recently replaced by Fidel Castro, has returned to the Army. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] is also in the anti-Castro movement and desires to remain in the army in order that he may take with him, at the proper time, trusted members of the rebel forces which he will command.

[REDACTED] advised that from her observations and also from information received from her sources, the economic and political situation in Cuba is rapidly deteriorating and the thinking among the anti-Castro forces is that a general upheaval among the people in Cuba may take place around the middle of July, 1959.

Political matters - Cuba

On June 24, 1959, a source with whom insufficient contact has been had to judge his reliability, advised that an effort would be made by Cuban exiles in Mexico to approach the Mexican Government to arrange for permission for Fulgenio Batista, former president of Cuba, to enter Mexico from the Dominican Republic.

A Mexican Government source who has provided reliable information in the past advised on June 25, 1959, that a formal request had not as yet been received by the Mexican Ministry of Government but that a tentative inquiry had been made unofficially. The source stated that [REDACTED] does not desire to have Batista in Mexico in line with a policy recently announced aimed at preventing Mexico from becoming a staging ground for revolutions directed against countries with which Mexico maintains diplomatic relations.

██████████ also stated that they expected momentarily to be advised that ██████████ and Comandante Camilo Cienfuegos have been placed under arrest.

CUBA,

██████████ advised ██████████ that in conversation with Dr. Raul Roa, Minister of State, who is now in Washington, D. C., he learned that Roa believes that Fidel Castro has so entangled himself with the Communists in Cuba, that he cannot separate himself from them. ██████████ expressed his opinion to ██████████ that the entire situation in Cuba is disintegrating and that there will soon be complete chaos.

██████████ further added that the recriminations against the anti-Castro people are almost unbelievable.

██████████ finally stated that he had just heard on July 1, 1959, that Aldo Vera, head of the secret police in Cuba, had been arrested with many of his men.

CASTRO'S AIR CHIEF QUIT
The most sensational Cuban news in some weeks was the resignation Tuesday of Maj. Pedro Diaz, chief of Fidel Castro's air force.
Maj. Diaz' resignation letter to President Manuel Urrutia also said that the Castro government is lousy up with Reds in key positions and growing more so, and that Castro and Urrutia well know who these persons are and what they want. Diaz then disappeared.
Castro Better Not Fomented We've been dubious of Castro ever since he upset Fulgencio Batista. He may not be a Red himself, but certainly he is infested with Reds, and up to now seems unwilling to comb them out of his beard and uniform.
If Castro doesn't want to be Cuba's Alexander Kerensky, and if he does want his country to lick its king-size unemployment, trade and tourism headaches, he'd better delouse his government, as we Castilians say, pronto.

DISCONTENT IN CUBA

1/10/99
CLASSIFIED BY 60267 NLS/BEPK
DECLASSIFY ON: 25X

Discontent continues to grow with the policies of the present Cuban Government. CASTRO has managed in the space of five months to totally annihilate the sympathy of the very rich and the middle class, the people who actually backed him in his fight against BATISTA.

He still has the backing of the landless peasants and the lower working class, those who hope to receive something for nothing. Sympathy here, however, will rapidly wane if his agrarian reform program fails or if economic conditions continue to deteriorate. Some of the poor are already grumbling concerning the lack of work. Some of these people now realize that government measures which reduce rents by almost fifty per cent and increase wages substantially cause the business man to retrench in his expansion.

AGRARIAN REFORM

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT

The much vaunted Agrarian Reform Law finally made its appearance in the Official Gazette on June 8, 1959, therefore making it the law of the land. Persons receiving the redistributed land will not have the right to pass such holdings to their heirs and the Instituto Nacional de Reforma Agraria (National Institute for Agrarian Reform - INRA) can take the land from the holder if it feels that it is not being properly administered.

Owners of private lands which are confiscated will be reimbursed with 20-year bonds, receiving 4½ per cent interest. The value of the lands will be determined by their tax valuation in 1958. As in many places, owners of land in Cuba have tried to always have a very low tax valuation on their lands, sometimes as little as 10 per cent of their actual value. The United States State Department in an official note has pointed out that, in accordance with international commitments, if land holdings of Americans are confiscated, just and prompt reimbursement should be made for the same. In answer to this note the Cuban authorities have pointed out the lack of sufficient funds at the present time to make such payment. The Revolutionary Government's refusal to make cash reimbursement is directly contrary to the Cuban constitution of 1940 and to their own "Law of the Sierra Maestra."

There has been much violent opposition to the Agrarian Reform Law. In Pinar del Rio Province the Association of Rural Property Owners have been particularly outspoken. This organization member composed of almost 20,000 have announced that they will die to defend their rights. (Source: [REDACTED] in Cuba) b7C

Because of the truculent attitude of the land owners in Pinar del Rio the Cuban Army has felt it necessary to substantially implement the forces deployed in that Province.

~~SECRET~~
The Agrarian Reform law was critically attacked by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], on June 16, 1959. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] had gone to FIDEL CASTRO's defense when arrested in 1953 by BATISTA authorities. [REDACTED] pointed out that the Catholic Church was in favor of agrarian reform but that a review of the law under discussion reflected that the Communists evidently had been consulted when it was drawn up. Cuba

Political opposition leaders have also announced their disagreement with agrarian reform as promulgated by the government. Among them have been [REDACTED] of the Authentico Party, and AURELIANO SANCHEZ ARANGO of the "Frente Nacional Democratica Triple A" (National Democratic Front Triple A). In the face of this public opposition CASTRO has reacted in a virulent, outraged manner claiming all those who do not agree with his policies are counter-revolutionaries and BATISTA followers. He has stated that the provisions of the law will be carried out without any modification. United Arab Republic

ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA

The Argentine-Cuban, ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA, outspoken critic of the United States and pro-Communist rebel commander on June 3, 1959, in a civil ceremony at "La Cabana" fortress, Havana, took himself another wife. This time it was [REDACTED] from Las Villas Province. His former wife is presently working for the War Ministry in Havana. Concerning GUEVARA's relationship with his former wife, information was received that he refused to pay a hotel bill which she had incurred. At the same time he paid a $1200 hotel bill for a Peruvian Communist who was visiting in Havana. (Source: [REDACTED] protect - disseminated)

On June 12, 1959, GUEVARA, taking his wife on a honeymoon trip, left Cuba on an official visit to the United Arab Republic.

EDUCATIONAL SITUATION

Although Havana University has officially reopened, this institution has had difficulty in securing teachers to take the posts formerly occupied by those who were purged because of BATISTA connections or because of incompetency.

The University of Villanueva, a private institution operated by the American Augustinian Order, reopened on June 15, 1959. Shortly before its reopening a small group of students who claimed to have the backing of the Minister of Education, ARMANDO ~~HART~~, seized the University grounds and stated they wanted to conduct a purge of the faculty. When the vast majority of the student body voted that this was actually the prerogative of the administrative authorities at the school, the rebellious students withdrew.

The reopening of Villanueva was accomplished when the government modified Law 11, which law had abolished all credits gained by any student since November 1, 1956, the date of the closing of Havana University. Authorities at Villanueva had publicly declared that they would not reopen their institution while such law was in effect. The law was so modified so that those who had attended the University of Villanueva since November, 1956, would only have to wait six months before practicing their profession. (Sources: [REDACTED])

CUBAN REVOLUTIONARY AIR FORCE

~~SECRET~~

During the week of June 7, 1959, the top command of the Cuban Revolutionary Air Force was changed. FIDEL CASTRO was reportedly angry over the way that the Air Force was being managed. Shortly before the head of the Air Force, PEDRO DIAZ LANZ, was relieved of his duties, he sent [REDACTED] an American connected with the Air Force to advise that certain Air Force planes were being painted and that their Cuban markings were being obliterated. It was presumed that these planes would be used in connection with some revolutionary expedition from Cuban shores. He wanted the Embassy to know that he was not in agreement with this procedure. b7C

On June 12, 1959, this office was informed that DIAZ LANZ was in hiding. (Source: [REDACTED] in Havana - b7C disseminated)

The dismissal of DIAZ LANZ is actually another triumph for RAUL CASTRO. RAUL has always felt that DIAZ LANZ was one who could not be trusted and has been attempting to curtail his influence with FIDEL.

(Source: [REDACTED])

On June 15, 1959, almost all Cuban pilots of Cuban Air Force, numbering about 14, were relieved of their duties. This leaves only six Chileans and one American, [REDACTED] as persons capable of flying Air Force planes. The Chileans had been brought to Cuba as instructors. (Source: [REDACTED] - disseminated) b7C b7C/D

On June 15, 1959, information was received that Major EVANS ROSALES, who had been head of the Rebel Air Force in the Sierra Maestra, was going to be named as head of the Cuban Air Force. This individual was a close friend of RAUL CASTRO. (Source: [REDACTED] protest - 67C/D disseminated)

In connection with the Air Force, an amusing and almost tragic event occurred on May 26, 1959. PEDRO DIAZ LANE, while piloting a helicopter, became lost in the Ciénaga de Zapata. Rushing to his rescue went RAUL CASTRO and four "barbudos" (bearded ones) in a light plane with only one hour's supply of fuel. This plane became lost. Rushing hectically into the confusion went the Prime Minister, FIDEL CASTRO, who managed to find DIAZ LANE but not RAUL. After a diligent search for about a day RAUL and his party were finally located. RAUL's plane on returning to deliver him safely to Havana had trouble when the landing gear would not function. All turned out safely however.

CABINET CHANGES

On June 12, 1959, the government announced the appointment of the following new cabinet officials:

State - RAUL ROSA, replacing ROBERTO AGUIRRE

Agriculture - PEDRO MARTI, replacing EUGENIO GARCIA MARTI

Health - SERAFIN LUIS DE CARAYE, replacing JULIO MARTINEZ PEREZ

Social Welfare - RAQUEL PEREZ DE MARTI, replacing ELENA PEREZ

Interior - JOSE MARIANO, replacing LUIS GILBERTO RODRIGUEZ

The cabinet shakeup indicates that CASTRO desires members in the cabinet who are 100 per cent in favor of his policies. It does not mean that he is securing more qualified personnel.

It has long been known that SONI MARIN of Agriculture was not in complete agreement with CASTRO's agrarian reform program. He believes it to be entirely too drastic and unworkable. He permitted his feelings to be made known almost publicly in this respect by refusing to go to the Sierra Maestra where the law was signed.

(Source: [REDACTED] protect - disseminated) b7c/p

Concerning the Minister of Social Welfare, Doctora ELENA Cubela NUNEZ, she also has been cool to the Agrarian Reform Law. She also refused to give some of the funds of her ministry to RAQUEL ~~PEREZ~~ ~~MINIST~~ who was operating a social welfare system for the Department of Defense, which is under the control of RAUL CASTRO, claiming that the Department of Defense should not be engaged in the social welfare field. On dismissal she complained to CASTRO that although he could spend hours before television cameras, he had no time to listen to the problems of his ministers. (Sources: [REDACTED] b7c

The Minister of the Interior was removed perhaps because of the handling by his department of various cases involving "so-called" international criminals. ANTI-FIDEL CASTRO ACTIVITIES

SECRET

The growing discontent against CASTRO and his policies can be gauged by the increasing talk of counter-revolutionary activities. From various sources have come reports that definite groups are being organized to bring about the fall of the Prime Minister. CASTRO, himself, in a public statement last week stated that the government was aware of such movements. The government, also during the past week, has announced that various groups of counter-revolutionaries have been arrested. These arrests were not confined merely to Havana but took place also in Santiago de Cuba and in Camaguey.

Ho Cuba
The name most heard in connection with these plots is that of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] but subsequently was accused by BATISTA of being involved in a plot to overthrow the government. He retired from public life. [REDACTED], who was reportedly not engaged in any way with political activities, was killed by revolutionaries.

[REDACTED] During the closing days of the BATISTA regime [REDACTED] known as a stern disciplinarian, courageous, rather ruthless, but would have some following among the old BATISTA army men and among members of the former police force.

Numerous rumors have been received that [REDACTED] has secretly visited the Provinces of Pinar del Rio and Las Villas to recruit followers. He does have a following in Las Villas Province where he had made his home for a number of years before fleeing the country. b7C

Two sources have advised that there are about 250 armed men at the present time in the Sierra de Escambray who are anti-FIDEL CASTRO.

(Sources - [REDACTED]) b7C
b2
b7D

There are also reportedly 200 former members of the Cuban Army in the hill section around Guantanamo. (Source - [REDACTED])

Another counter-revolutionary group is known as "Organizacion de Autenticos Oficiales" (Organization of Authentic Officials) (QAO). This group is composed of former members of the Cuban Armed Forces who were anti-Batista and are also anti-FIDEL CASTRO, mainly because they believe that he has permitted Communists to infiltrate the armed forces. This group has a loose connection with [REDACTED] of the Authentic Party. The group does not want to be associated with any of the Batista adherents. (Source - [REDACTED] - disseminated to Embassy and CIA) b7C

~~SECRET~~

Another [redacted] is in close contact with [redacted] has advised that, although [redacted] group does not like to become associated with any of the former followers of BATISTA, [redacted] group realizes that with such cooperation plans to overthrow CASTRO would be more sure. (Source - [redacted] disseminated)

b7C
b7C/D

One thing that can be said with certainty is that there are some counter-revolutionary groups in action. On June 17, 1959, Legat received information that on that afternoon the Army had been put on the alert as it was expected that some counter-revolutionary attempt would be made that evening or the following day. During the night of June 17-18 four bombs were exploded by unknown persons in the City of Havana. On the morning of June 19 another bomb exploded in Havana, and three other unexploded bombs were found. The Chief of the National Police announced that the death penalty would be asked for all participating in such bombing ventures wherein persons were injured. (Source - [redacted])

b7C/D

All the above sources state that counter-revolutionary groups are disorganized and that much planning has yet to take place before a cohesive, effective organization is formed.

POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

Ex-President of Cuba CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS appeared on television on June 16, 1959. PRIO, who stole millions while President, had kind words to say about CASTRO and his policies. He further claimed that, although United States authorities had been zealous in attempting to stop arms shipments to rebels who were fighting BATISTA, these same officials were protecting BATISTA adherents presently in the United States who were now smuggling arms. PRIO, the next day, departed from Cuba to visit the United States and European countries. Many here believe that PRIO did not attack CASTRO or CASTRO's policies because PRIO's position is a rather untenable one. If attacked, CASTRO could very easily decide to confiscate all of PRIO's ill-gotten gains. CASTRO could further point out that it was only because of the cowardly attitude of PRIO that BATISTA came into power as PRIO made no attempt to stop the BATISTA "coup" in 1952, even though he had the people with him.

[REDACTED] of the Authentic Party, of which party PRIO formerly was the leader, in a public statement requested that CASTRO name the date for general elections. He strongly criticized the Agrarian Reform Law and other CASTRO measures and indicated that Cuba now had a dictatorship. A source has reported that this is an opening gun in a campaign to make CASTRO publicly announce his intentions re the formation of a truly elective government. CASTRO replied to [REDACTED] a few days later by addressing a studio television audience and asking if they wanted elections. The reply was "no." Therefore, no elections. b7c

REVOLUTIONARY EXPEDITIONS

There are evidences that revolutionary expeditions against Nicaragua and the Dominican Republic are being given more than moral support by the Cuban Government. Although

CASTRO publicly stated that he would not permit Cuba to be used as a jumping off place for such expeditions, it is common rumor that expeditionaries are being trained here. (Source - [REDACTED])

On June 18, 1959, information was received that the rebel forces which attacked Costanza in the Dominican Republic had actually been transported from Oriente Province, Cuba, in a Cuban plane with false markings. It is known the Cuban Air Force has recently had some of its planes repainted to obliterate Cuban markings. (Source - [REDACTED] Havana) (Information disseminated in Embassy)

b7C

In Havana, bonds of Nicaraguan and Dominican exile groups are publicly being sold and volunteers recruited.

COMMUNISM IN GOVERNMENT

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] advise that the Partido Socialista Popular (PSP) (Cuban Communist Party) continues to meet with steady success in its penetration of the various sections of the Cuban Government. Sources state that the PSP has received a "shot in the arm" since it stopped being the target for attacks by the July 26 Movement. Its continued support of the Revolutionary Government and particularly the Agrarian Reform Program has endeared the PSP with high government functionaries to the point that these functionaries much more readily accept admitted PSP members in government positions. These sources and [REDACTED] all advise that RAUL CASTRO and ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA continue to be instrumental in placing Communists or pro-Communists in positions of trust in the government. [REDACTED] advises that members of the Cuban Army are receiving Communist indoctrination courses as part of their training. [REDACTED] stated that similar courses are being given to new officers of the Cuban Navy. [REDACTED] advised that all non-Communist soldiers at La Cabana Fortress are being removed and replaced by Communists or pro-Communists.

[REDACTED] advised that "Revolutionary indoctrination" is now being given even to prisoners at the National Prison on the Isle of Pines. According to [REDACTED]

EFFICIENCY AND POSSIBLE CHANGES IN POLICE

There has been almost no improvement in the efficiency of the Cuban police. [REDACTED] has informed that the great majority of the police have yet to begin normal police functions. Source stated that complete lack of police training and experience continue to be major problems but that, in addition, most police officers must devote the majority of their time either to investigations of former adherents of BATISTA or to the investigations of the rapidly growing number of counter-revolutionary organizations.

It is apparent from the press reports that the crime rate in Cuba is rising very rapidly and, while some of this may be caused by the deteriorating economic situation and unemployment, there is little doubt that the Cuban criminal element has become aware that the police are ineffective. He stated that there are only a handful of police officers who have the slightest idea of how to conduct an investigation. [REDACTED] has advised that the average individual has no respect for the present police force and that assaults upon individual policemen are frequent in the older section of Havana. He said that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has advised that recently there have been some changes in the police, particularly in higher level positions but that there is no reason to believe that the changes will result in greater police efficiency since the replacements have no previous experience. Source said that most of the changes appear to be masterminded by RAUL CASTRO with a view toward placing men he can more completely trust in positions of command and to eliminate persons not in accord with the "leftist" direction of the government.

Cuba [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] further related to her that in connection with the shakeup in the Cabinet, [REDACTED] the DR, demanded appointments for nine of his men which Castro promised and had approved. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that as a result of these appointments of DR members, the Communists also demanded consideration from Castro, and Castro asked for a period of two weeks to make a decision. [REDACTED] stated that the opinion in Havana is that the Communists will become more and more powerful within the Castro government and Castro himself, will become no more than a tool in their hands. [redacted] stated that on the nights of June 13, 14, 15 and 16, 1959, all the flood lights of various military establishments and strategic points in Havana were turned on searching the skies and this indicated to her that the Castro government expected some retaliation from the Dominican Republic. b7C

[redacted] advised that the rumors about the Dominican Air Force pilot [redacted] betrayed the rebels was not true, as [redacted] was in Havana selling information and had been paid $50,000 for this information by the Cubans. POSSIBLE FALSELY CLAIMING CITIZENSHIP

In the event your office determines it was necessary for persons flying on the Caribair plane to the Dominican Republic to represent themselves as U. S. citizens, consideration should be given to handling the possible violation of Falsely Claiming Citizenship in accordance with existing procedure in the Manual of Instructions, Section 41.

It would appear sufficient preliminary inquiry should be conducted to determine whether the reported Cubans on the flight involved would have been refused passage if they had not claimed to be U. S. citizens as alleged. It would be pertinent to ascertain whether these representations concerning citizenship were material to obtain something of value.

If, however, there was no set policy in this regard and the U. S. Attorney feels no prosecution would be justified, the character of FCO should be deleted from communications after the submission of a report.

This will confirm information furnished orally to [REDACTED] of the Department of State by Special Agent [REDACTED] of this Bureau on the evening of July 10, 1959.

On July 10, 1959, [REDACTED] who has been volunteering information to this Bureau concerning Cuban matters, advised our representative in Havana as follows:

[REDACTED] is making a formal request [REDACTED] Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba, that [REDACTED] the Cuban Sugar Institute, and some of his associates be arrested. [REDACTED] reportedly has alleged that [REDACTED] and his associates have been working against agrarian reforms of the Cuban Government and have been making allegations that Ernesto Guevara, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are communists. [REDACTED] plans to submit his resignation and indicate his opposition to the communists' influence in the Cuban Government at that time. An invasion of the Dominican Republic from Cuba is scheduled for July 26, 1959. The invaders will go through Haiti en route to the Dominican Republic. Twenty-five Russian engineers are staying at the Seville Biltmore Hotel in Havana. They are employed at Cienaga de Zapata, on the southern coast of Cuba, where they supervise the construction of a missile base nearby. Many political prisoners are working on the outskirts of Cienaga de Zapata in an effort to drain the swampy area on which the missile base is being constructed. The missile base is the subject of considerable conversation on the Isle of Pines. Fishermen reportedly have seen the base being constructed. Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI (109-12-210)

DATE: 7-14-59

FROM : Legal Attaché, Madrid (109-16)

SUBJECT: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA
IS - CUBA

REC
DECLASSIFIED BY SP8MAC/GAC
ON 6/6/94 (JFK)

For the information of the Bureau, there are attached seven copies of a letterhead memorandum setting forth data on the above subject. The confidential source abroad mentioned in the memorandum is [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in Madrid during the BATISTA government. The two friends to whom the letter from [REDACTED] mentioned in the attached, is directed are [REDACTED] himself and [REDACTED] and a close friend of [REDACTED], who at one time was [REDACTED] on the latter's Havana newspaper "Tiempo En Cuba". (u)

The attached memorandum has been classified confidential because it contains information concerning a supposedly friendly foreign power, Cuba. No local dissemination was made of the memorandum since it had no bearing on Spain. (u)

Two extra copies of this letter are attached for forwarding by the Bureau together with one copy each of the attached memorandum to the Miami and Havana Offices for information. The original letter from [REDACTED] as furnished by [REDACTED] is also attached since the latter indicated that he did not desire it to be returned and since it is felt that it would not be desirable to retain it in the files of the Madrid Office. (u)

Madrid will continue to follow this matter through available sources, and the Bureau will be advised. (u)

Reference is made to this Bureau's letter of July 14, 1959, captioned as above, which contained information furnished [REDACTED] on July 10, 1959, concerning the impending arrest [REDACTED] the Cuban Sugar Institute, and the plans [REDACTED] to submit his resignation from the Institute.

On July 13, 1959, [REDACTED] advised our representative in Havana as follows:

[REDACTED] has decided not to resign his position at the present time but will make a report to Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba concerning communists in the Cuban Sugar Institute. The formal request from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] Fidel Castro, that [REDACTED] be arrested has been "lost." A large number of invasion troops is presently concentrated in the southwest section of the Oriente Province of Cuba. This group will embark in the near future from the town of Fortillo for Haiti and the Dominican Republic. Reportedly, [REDACTED] was one of the leaders of an expedition headed by Enrique Jimenez Moya which made an abortive attempt to invade the Dominican Republic. A report has been received that [REDACTED] is alive but has surrendered to the Dominican Government because of his disillusionment over the fact communists controlled the expedition. [REDACTED] reportedly has made a radio broadcast from the Dominican Republic.

Cabana Fortress and Camp Libertad in Cuba are almost devoid of troops and troops are now concentrated at Managua,

Cuba
Cuba
 Special Agent [REDACTED] WFO, advised 3:25 PM, 7-17-59, that [REDACTED] had reported various conversations of individuals at the Cuban Embassy. The various officials at the Embassy are apparently confused and do not know the exact story with regard to the reported resignation of Fidel Castro. However, the consensus of opinion of this at the Embassy appears to be that Castro has or will resign and that the resignation is the result of a dispute with President Manuel Urrutia. The consensus of opinion is that Castro will use the resignation to gain support and it will eventually end in the ouster of Urrutia and increase Castro's political power and prestige. 8(4)

ACTION:

Inasmuch as the individuals at the Embassy indicate they do not know what is going on and we have no definite information, it is not believed this need be disseminated, but any information received from the sources by WFO which reflect an accurate status of the situation will be immediately furnished to the Bureau by WFO. 8(4)

According to press reports on 7/18/59, Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado has been installed as the new President of Cuba.

Bufiles contain the following concerning Dorticos:

[REDACTED]

(64-1206-A-9)

The Hsinhua News Agency, official Chinese Communist News Agency, in a release dated 12/10/58 at Peking, China, stated as follows: "The Cuban military authorities arrested 2 educationalists on Saturday for the alleged crime of 'communist activities' and 'promoting a strike by university students.' The victims are Dr. Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado, Dean of the National Law School, and the University of Cienfuegos." (64-200-210-A)

On 2/3/59 Department of State, through liaison, furnished a copy of a list of names described as "Office of the President and Cabinet of Cuba as of 1/26/59." Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado was listed therein as "Minister in Charge of Presentation and Study of Revolutionary Laws." (109-12-210-427)

Joint Weeka Number 21 from the United States Embassy, Havana, dated 5/26/59 advised that the Cuban Government on 5/25/59 initiated a weekly television program aimed at explaining the revolutionary laws of Cuba to the public. The television program reportedly was to appear each Monday on Channel 2 under the name "The Revolution Explains Its Laws." Dr. Osvaldo Dorticos, Minister in Charge of the Study and Preparation of Revolutionary Laws, was listed as the director of the program. (109-12-210-562)

On July 17, 1959, [redacted] Hotel Bretton Hall, New York City, advised she had been furnished the following information during her last day in Cuba, July 2, 1959 through July 15, 1959. She identified her sources as [redacted] to Fidel Castro; [redacted] b7C [redacted], who recently resigned as [redacted] the Sugar Institute, and [redacted] who was formerly affiliated with the Cuban Police Force for twenty years.

The headquarters of Fidel Castro has approved a plot to discredit the United States in the Caribbean area by making it appear that United States citizens are interfering in Cuban affairs and are attempting to overthrow the present Cuban Government. This is to be done by recruiting United States citizens in the Miami, Florida, area to form an armed expeditionary group which will attempt to invade Cuba by making landings at the Ports of Biahondia and Esperanza in Pinar del Rio Province on the 27th or 28th of July. The Cuban authorities will of course be prepared for the invasion group and expect to capture it for the purpose of unmasking it as an armed attack by United States citizens against Cubans.

Recruitment of personnel for the above expeditionary group is presently underway in the Miami and Tampa, Florida, areas among disreputable and irresponsible characters. One [redacted], who is also known as [redacted] an ex-convict, [redacted] b7C Money for this operation is coming from a wealthy Venezuelan, [redacted] (last name unknown), who is presently in Prague. He either sends money to Venezuela or has money in Venezuela, which is transferred to Cuba and then is put at the disposal of [redacted] who is believed to now be in the Tampa, Florida, area.

Also approved by the headquarters of Fidel Castro is a plan to incite further riots between the anti-Castro and the pro-Castro elements in the Miami area. Recently the July 26 Movement in Cuba has dispatched a number of its "goon" personnel to the Miami area with instructions that beginning

In addition, [redacted] informed [redacted] that one of his informants reported that a Cuban, name unknown, who is a captain in Fidel Castro's army, is presently in the Miami area with orders to assassinate [redacted] b7C [redacted] direct. The would-be assassin is described as being about 22 years of age, dark complexion, and holder of a diplomatic passport.

[redacted] also advised [redacted] that Castro is using his military planes to transport arms from Florida to Cuba and claims that during the last six weeks the Cubans had transported ammunition, mortars, hand grenades, antitank weapons and other arms by this means. [redacted] is of the opinion that the Cubans are utilizing facilities of the Air International Company in the Miami area for this purpose. b7C

Dear Dick:

I thought you might be interested in the following information which was reported to our office in New York City on July 14, 1959, by an employee of the Royal Dutch Airlines (KLM), who, because of his position, was very anxious to have his identity protected.

Between June 6 and June 15, 1959, KLM handled two shipments at Idlewild Airport, New York, which had originated in Moscow and which were being sent to Havana, Cuba. The first shipment was marked "Machine Parts" and consisted of 37 cartons. While these cartons were being transferred from one plane to another, one was accidentally dropped and it broke open. The KLM employees handling the cartons discovered that this particular one that broke open contained machine guns which were marked in what appeared to be the Russian language. The second shipment, which was handled during this same period, consisted of magazines printed in the Spanish language. They also had originated in Moscow and were destined to Havana.

On July 8, 1959, a third shipment from Moscow to Havana was received at KLM, Idlewild Airport. This consisted of 30 cartons, each of which was marked "Machine Parts." The contents of the cartons were not determined.

Attached from New York contains information from employee of Dutch Airlines who handled a shipment of 37 cartons marked "Machine Parts" which arrived in New York between June 6 and 15, 1959. The shipment originated in Moscow, Russia, and was en route to Havana, Cuba. One carton broke open when it was accidentally dropped and was observed to contain machine guns with markings which appeared to be in Russian language. Several days later a second Moscow to Havana shipment of magazines in the Spanish language was handled. On 7-8-59 a third Moscow to Havana shipment of 30 cartons marked "Machine Parts," contents unknown, was handled. Above information being sent to State, [REDACTED] Customs, Department and military agencies.

GandyMemorandum 7/20/59 [REDACTED] to Belmont pointed out that [REDACTED]

We have given consideration to the possibility of exploiting this information. It may be noted that when [REDACTED] testified at a public hearing of the same Subcommittee on 7/14/59 he was asked by Subcommittee Counsel [REDACTED] if it was true that the word "God" was stricken from the new Cuban constitution and [REDACTED] answered in the affirmative. His testimony to this effect was reported in the 7/27/59 issue of "U. S. News and World Report" and thus has had nation-wide publicity.

It is felt that potential for excellent exploitation exists here if we can determine and assess the significance of the omission of the word "God" from the new Cuban constitution, comparing this with the manner it was included in the old constitution. It may also be relevant to ascertain whether Fidel Castro's constitution bears signs of communist influence, phraseology or slant. Further, we have not received this information from any other source and it would be well to have our Legal Attache make a discreet check to determine if what [REDACTED] has stated is in fact true. This would, of course, be a means of assessing the reliability [REDACTED]

ACTION:

Attached is cablegram to Legal Attache, Havana, instructing him to review old and new Cuban constitutions in effort to verify statement [REDACTED] and determine whether new constitution bears signs of communist influence, phraseology or slant. He is instructed to furnish any comments or observations available to his sources. Upon receipt of reply from Legal Attache, we will consider whether this matter may be exploited to the advantage of our Government.

FROM : Legat, Havana (66-0)

SUBJECT: HAVANA OFFICE - ADMINISTRATIVE FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

DATE: July 13, 1959

The Cuban Government has announced plans to invite 500,000 guajiros (agricultural workers) to visit Havana for a celebration to be held on July 26, 1959. It is anticipated that these guajiros will begin arriving in Havana around July 20 and some will remain until about July 30, 1959.

Various rumors have been heard that those not in favor of the Cuban Government will cause incidents to occur in Havana during that time. Numerous Cubans and Americans are making arrangements to have their families in the United States during the time of this celebration. It is believed that all of the leading hotels will be taken over to house these guajiros and already government authorities have requested citizens to lodge them in their homes. In this connection, this office has received information that on certain occasions threats have been used to get people to take the farm workers into their homes.

It is the opinion of the Legat that it would be undesirable for any Bureau employees desiring to visit Cuba to come to Havana at the time these guajiros are in the city inasmuch as hotel accommodations will not be available and their visit might be spoiled by some untold incident.

This office is taking all appropriate action to assure that all security regulations are adhered to and that personnel will be circumspect in their activities during the pertinent period.

ReBulet to the Office of Security, Department of State, dated July 14, 1959, captioned as above.

The Legat has received rumors from several individuals that a missile base was presently under construction in the Sierra Maestra region of Cuba which is in an isolated part of the Island; however, the sources of this information had no concrete knowledge and stated it was merely rumors which they had heard and could furnish no definite details.

Concerning the allegations that 25 Russians, who were engineers, were residing at the Hotel Sevilla-Biltmore, [REDACTED] has advised he has not been able to locate any Russians living at this hotel. This hotel is frequently used by prominent American newspapermen, and [REDACTED] a New Zealander and writer for the English-language newspaper, "The Havana Post," has resided there for a number of years. This hotel would be one of the most conspicuous places in Havana for Russians to stay.

Concerning Cienaga de Zapata, Cuban authorities are attempting to drain the marsh lands in this place in order to develop rice fields. The Embassy is aware that Dutch engineers from Holland have come to Havana to help in this work. No information has been received that Russians have any part in this program.

The fact that the construction of a missile base is the subject of considerable conversation on the Isle of Pines is hard to believe inasmuch as the Isle of Pines is located approximately 250 miles from Cienaga de Zapata and there is no communication between the two except by boat.

The Air Attache here has advised that the Cuban Air Force is presently in possession of four helicopters. One of these is used almost exclusively by Major CAMILO CIENFUEGOS, who is stationed in Havana. It is doubtful whether the three remaining helicopters could transport many workers around the Cienaga de Zapata.

By memo 7/13/59, the Legat, Havana, advised that the Cuban Government has announced plans to invite 500,000 guajiros (agricultural workers) to visit Havana for a celebration on 7/26/59, and it is anticipated that these guajiros will begin arriving in Havana around 7/20 and some will remain until about 7/30/59.

Since it is possible that some incidents might occur during the above period, the Legat feels it would be undesirable for any Bureau employee to visit Cuba while the guajiros will be in Havana. Under our policy, the Bureau must be advised when an employee intends to travel outside the United States or its possessions except to Canada and Mexico. In view of this control over any proposed visits by our employees to Cuba, no further action is felt necessary. Should any requests be received to visit Havana during the above-mentioned period, you will be advised.
